[Reasons for not implementing the respective principles of the Corporate Governance Code] (Updated)

* Statements regarding all principles are pursuant to the June 2018 pre-revision code.

The Company implements all the principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosures based on the various corporate governance code principles] (Updated)

* Statements regarding all principles are pursuant to the June 2018 pre-revision code.

(Principle 1-4 - Cross-shareholdings)

The Company acquires and holds cross-shareholdings only in cases where it deems that doing so will help increase the corporate value of the Company over the medium to long term, only after, however, thoroughly considering the economic rationale and the necessity for maintaining and strengthening relationships with business partners and business operations. Each year, the Board of Directors shall examine the significance of having major cross-shareholdings based on the preceding paragraph, and the Company sells shares that are of little significance in terms of the effect they have on the market.

The Company appropriately exercises its voting rights for cross-shareholdings after carefully examining whether the content of each proposal is likely to damage the Company's corporate value and whether it can be expected to prove useful for the sound management of the issuing company and increase its corporate value.

(Principle 1-7 – Related party transactions)

All significant or irregular transactions with officers or major shareholders must be approved by the Board of Directors to ensure the common interests of the Company and shareholders are not harmed.

(Principle 3-1 – Enhancement of information disclosure)

1) Corporate Mission and management plan

The Group's Corporate Mission is as stated in 1. Basic Approach of this Report.

Further information on the management plan is provided on the Company's website at the URL below.

<http://www.morinagamilk.co.jp/english/ir/management/plan/>

2) Basic approaches and policies in relation to corporate governance

The Group's basic concepts and policies on corporate governance are as stated in 1. Basic Concepts of this Report.

3) Policies and procedures for the determination of management executives and director remuneration by the Board of Directors

Remuneration for executive directors is linked to management performance, such as the realization of medium to long term profit. In the future, the policy will be made into one which can provide the executive directors with further motivation for maximizing the corporate value of the Company. In addition, the remuneration of independent outside directors shall not include stock related remuneration or other business performance linked elements.

In regard to the procedures for determining director remuneration, the amount of remuneration is determined by the Representative Director on a case by case basis, after a review and report by the Personnel Remuneration Committee.

4) Policies and procedures for when the Board of Directors appoints management executives and nominates candidate directors, as well as Audit & Supervisory Board members

The Company selects persons of excellent character and insight who have the professional expertise, extensive business and management experience necessary to maintain the Company's sustainable growth, without regard to gender or nationality, as officer candidates.

Candidates for Director positions are determined by the Board of Directors after an examination and report by the Personnel Remuneration Committee.

(Supplementary Principle 4-11-3 – Effectiveness Evaluation of the Board of Directors)

The Company conducts effectiveness analyses and evaluations of the Board of Directors in order to improve the function of the Board of Directors.

Specifically, using a survey filled out by the directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members, in regard to general matters relating to the Board of Directors, such as its composition and operating method, deliberations, and collaborations with external officers, an evaluation is conducted by the Board of Directors on the results of this analysis. It should be noted that, in order to obtain unbiased opinions from those taking the survey, the survey is performed through the use of an anonymous questionnaire, and the collection, summary, and analysis of the survey results is contracted out to an external body.

In the results of the evaluation for this year, overall improvement compared to the previous year was observed and it was found that the effectiveness of the Board of Directors has steadily improved. In the future, the Company will implement various measures to improve the items that had a low score in this evaluation and reinforce the supervisory functions of the Board, which was a new topic of this year's survey, in order to enhance corporate governance and further promote management that seeks to raise corporate value on a sustainable basis.

(Supplementary Principle 4-14-2 – Director and Corporate Auditor Training Policy)

The necessary training will be implemented based on prior knowledge and experience, such as legal training on company management by attorneys, and briefings on the Company's management strategy, financial situation, and other important matters, etc., so that officers can appropriately perform their roles and responsibilities. It should be noted that, To foster officers' successors, the Company conducts education and training for acquiring necessary management knowledge depending on the relevant employee's position.

(Principle 5-1 – Policy on Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders)

The Company makes the building of trustworthy relationships with shareholders through constructive dialogue a priority for management. The Company actively strives to understand shareholding structures and works to promote dialogue with shareholders through the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, financial results briefings, individual visits and meetings, and other such occasions.

Matters in relation to constructive dialogue with shareholders are supervised by the Director in charge of general affairs and the Director in charge of public relations. The contact points for shareholders are the General Affairs Department and the IR & PR Department, and the Company is aiming to improve communication with shareholders through maintaining contact by sharing information, etc., as needed. In addition, in regard to dialogue such as interviews, this is supported by an appropriate framework that considers the purpose, importance of content, and the nature of the interviewee, etc., with the opinions, etc., which are ascertained through dialogue and are reported, shared with the management level and the Board of Directors in accordance with importance and content.

It should be noted that the Company, when engaging in dialogue with shareholders, thoroughly controls insider information in order to ensure fairness, such as by setting a silence period for settlement information.

3) Regarding the content of limited liability agreements

Agreements that restrict the liability to compensate for damages as prescribed in Article 423 Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act have been executed between the Company and its outside directors and outside corporate auditors.

The Company amended the Articles of Incorporation at the 89th annual general meeting of shareholders, and established provisions in the Articles of Incorporation relating to limited liability agreements with all outside directors and outside corporate auditors that, in regard to the responsibility of Article 423 Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, restrict the liability to compensate for damages to the minimum amount of responsibility prescribed in Article 425 Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, as long as the person concerned has performed their duties in good faith and without gross negligence on their part.

3. Reasons for the selection of the current corporate governance system

The Company has established an executive management committee composed of directors and executive officers separate to the Board of Directors.

The directors and executive officers in the executive management committee exchange opinions about the execution status of their respective roles, and endeavor to pursue the maximum efficiency for the Company. In this system as well, the Board of Directors serves as the highest decision-making body for management, and the executive management committee serves as a consultation, communication, and advisory body business execution; they both serve independent functions, and shall continue to ensure that a system is in place that aims to strengthen corporate governance.

IV. Matters relating to the internal control system, etc.

1. Basic approach to the internal control system and the establishment status thereof (Updated)

➤ Basic approach

The Group promotes the internal control system in pursuit of the stable and efficient performance of its corporate activities, and engages in initiatives to ensure the reliability of its compliance risk management and finance reports. Specifically, control standards have been prescribed and business is executed based on these, in addition to efforts being made to build the Group's internal control system so that each respective department concerned can efficiently hold consultations, share information, and transmit instructions and/or requests relating to internal control. In addition, the Group is endeavoring to establish a system that supports audits in order to ensure the effectiveness of audits performed by corporate auditors.

➤ Establishment status

The Group, in order to build internal control, has established the Internal Control Committee at our Company, and the General Affairs Department is the department responsible for this committee. In addition, the Management Department of each group company is responsible for overseeing internal control in each group company. The Internal Control Committee regularly receives control status reports from each of these group companies, conducts verifications, and provides the necessary instructions.

1) Regarding compliance

Pursuant to the Code of Conduct, the directors and employees thoroughly perform their duties towards the realization of the corporate philosophy, under the premise that our corporate activities comply with the law, Articles of Incorporation, company regulations, and social ethics. For this reason, we have established the Compliance Subcommittee within the Internal Control Committee, promoting compliance activities throughout the group, endeavoring to expand, permeate, and establish awareness of group compliance, and in addition, have established an internal reporting system as well as operating the "Morinaga Milk Helpline," which serves as an internal reporting and consultation system in which the person making a report can provide information directly to an external attorney, as well as the internal consultation help desk.

2) Regarding risk management

We identify individual risks, determine the person responsible for managing each individual risk, and are promoting the construction of a risk management system. Toward this, we have established the Risk Management Subcommittee within the Internal Control Committee, and promote the establishment of both a reporting and cooperation system. In addition, in the event of an unexpected accident occurring, we respond promptly in accordance with the regulations on crisis management, preventing the expansion of damage and keeping damage to a minimum.

3) Regarding the information management system

In regard to documentation on business execution of the directors and related information, each department appropriately stores and manages this in accordance with the Information Security Policy and other internal regulations. Directors are able to view such documentation, etc., as needed, and in addition, directors, etc., of subsidiaries are obligated to report regularly to the Company any important information relating to the execution of their duties; we are clarifying the standards for this and are promoting the establishment of a system.

4) Ensuring the reliability of financial reports

We thoroughly manage the work processes that are necessary for the creation of financial reports, including the documentation of business procedures. Toward this, we have established the Financial Reporting Subcommittee within the Internal Control Committee, maintain close contact with the accounting auditors, and are promoting the establishment of a system that ensures the reliability of the entire group's financial reports.

5) Ensuring the effectiveness of audits by corporate auditors

In addition to maintaining and strengthening the system for reports from across the group, protecting reporters, and thoroughly managing information, we are promoting the establishment of a system where corporate auditors attend key meetings and receive explanations from stakeholders. In addition, we have appointed employees to assist the corporate auditors in their duties.

2. Basic approach to the elimination of antisocial forces and the establishment status thereof

➤ Basic approach

The Group, in addition to refusing any kind of relationship, including trading, with antisocial forces, has established a system for the refusal of unjust demands, and established a resolute management posture in which close cooperation is maintained with external specialist bodies, and responds in a systematic and legal manner.

➤ Establishment status

The relevant department in charge keeps in close contact with external specialist agencies, such as the police, and takes various measures in response. In addition, we collect and accumulate information on antisocial forces, have established a response manual, and are aiming to ensure a policy where such matters are thoroughly responded to, including the provisions of training to each headquarters department and each office.

V. Other

1. Presence or absence of takeover defense measures

- Presence or absence of takeover defense measures Measures have been established

Supplementary explanation relating to this matter

The Company, based on the approval of the annual general meeting of shareholders held on June 29, 2016, with the objective of ensuring and improving the corporate value of the Company and thereby the common interests of its shareholders, updated its response policy to large scale acquisitions of our shares (takeover defense measures). (The amended takeover defense measures are hereinafter referred to as “the Plan”). The effective period of the Plan is until the conclusion of the final annual general meeting of shareholders for the fiscal year ending within three years after the conclusion of the annual general meeting of shareholders held on June 29, 2016.

For detailed information on the Plan, refer to the press release dated April 26, 2016 entitled “Regarding the updating of our response policy to large scale acquisitions of our shares (takeover defense measures)” (the press release can be viewed on our website at http://www.morinagamilk.co.jp/release/2016/0426_2890.html (Japanese only)).

2. Other matters relating to the corporate governance system, etc. (Updated)

The Company has a system in place where important information within the group can be consolidated by the Company's IR & PR Department, Corporate Strategic Planning Department, Finance & Accounting Department, and General Affairs Department. Therefore, these four departments, on each occasion that important information which may be subject to timely disclosure is obtained, upon holding consultation with the department responsible for disclosure, report to the person responsible for handling information and the representative director, to receive a determined response.
