

Morinaga Milk Group: Corporate Governance Guidelines

Chapter 1 General Provisions

(Purpose of these Guidelines)

Article 1 These Guidelines aim to contribute to the sustainable growth of the Morinaga Milk Group (“the Group”) and help increase its corporate value by setting the basic framework of and developing an approach for the corporate governance of the Group.

(Definition)

Article 2 In these Guidelines, “corporate governance” refers to the structure for implementing transparent, fair, timely and decisive decision-making by the Group to help realize sustainable growth and increase corporate value, while at all times paying due consideration to the needs and perspectives of various stakeholders, including shareholders and customers.

(Status of these Guidelines)

Article 3 These Guidelines take precedence in application over other internal regulations, agreements and rules, but rank below the Articles of Incorporation of the Company and laws and regulations.

(Corporate Mission and Basic Approach to Corporate Governance)

Article 4 1 The Group has the following corporate slogan and corporate philosophy as its corporate mission and shall strive to promote and make them widely known.

1) Corporate slogan

For Ever Brighter Smiles

2) Corporate philosophy

Contribute to healthy and enjoyable lifestyles through offering unique products derived from advanced milk technology

2 The Group shall contribute to society through its business activities, based on its corporate mission, and shall continually work to develop and enhance a highly effective corporate governance system to achieve sustainable growth and increase corporate value.

(Basic Policies regarding Development and Enhancement of Our Corporate Governance System)

Article 5 The Group shall work to develop and enhance its corporate governance system in accordance with the following basic policies.

- 1) Respect shareholders' rights, and ensure equal treatment.
- 2) Respect the perspectives and rights of various stakeholders including our shareholders, customers, business partners, local communities, employees, and build proper relationships with them.
- 3) Disclose corporate information appropriately, and ensure transparency.
- 4) Build a structure in which each of the bodies comprising the corporate governance system organically collaborates, and ensure the effectiveness of functions supervising the execution of operations by the Board of Directors.
- 5) Aim to achieve sustainable growth and improve corporate value, and have constructive dialogue with shareholders who expect these aims and medium- to long-term profits to be realized.

Chapter 2 Ensuring the Rights and Equal Treatment of Shareholders

(General Meeting of Shareholders)

Article 6 1 To enable shareholders to appropriately exercise their voting rights at the General Meeting of Shareholders, which is the Company's highest decision-making body, the Company shall strive to create the following environment.

- 1) For the convenience of overseas investors, the convocation notice for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be provided in English as well as Japanese.
- 2) The convocation notice for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent out at least three weeks prior to the date of the meeting. In addition, before it is sent out, the convocation notice shall be submitted to the stock exchange, distributed via the Electronic Voting Platform, and posted on the Company's website around one month prior to the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 3) For the convenience of all shareholders, including those who do not attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company has introduced voting via the Internet and the Electronic Voting Platform.
- 4) The schedule for the General Meeting of Shareholders and other related events shall be appropriately organized as to enhance dialogue with shareholders and to provide accurate information.
- 5) In cases where institutional investors and others who hold shares in the name of a trust bank or other such institution want to exercise the rights they have as shareholders, such as their voting rights, at the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company shall hold discussions with the relevant trust bank or other such institution and consider the matter in advance.

- 2 When a proposal made by the Company at the General Meeting of Shareholders is approved but has over 20% of votes cast against it, the Company shall analyze why those shareholders voted against the proposal and their reasons for doing so, and consider necessary responses.

(Ensuring Shareholders' Rights)

Article 7 The Company shall substantially ensure the rights of all shareholders, including minority and foreign shareholders.

- 1) When a basic capital policy that results in a change of control or in significant dilution is proposed, the Board of Directors shall examine the necessity and rationale of the policy, take appropriate steps in response, and accordingly disclose the content of the policy to prevent harm coming to existing shareholders' rights.
- 2) In the event that a tender offer is made for the Company's shares, the Company shall appropriately disclose the collective position of the Board of Directors regarding the tender offer. Furthermore, the Company shall not unduly inhibit shareholders' rights to sell their shares in response to the tender offer.

(Ensuring the Equal Treatment of Shareholders)

Article 8 1 The Company shall treat all shareholders equally according to their equity interests in the Company.

- 2 The Company does not provide special conveniences to specific shareholders.

(Procedures for Transactions that Are Likely to Harm Shareholders' Common Interests)

Article 9 1 All significant or irregular transactions with officers or major shareholders must be approved by the Board of Directors to ensure the common interests of the Company and shareholders are not harmed.

- 2 To prevent officers and employees of the Company engaging in insider trading, the handling of important facts that have not been disclosed shall be prescribed in the Insider Trading Regulations, which are to be strictly enforced.

(Basic Policy for Capital Policy)

- Article 10 1 The Company shall strive to both strengthen its financial base and realize high profitability with the aim of increasing corporate value by achieving sustainable growth.
- 2 Regarding distribution of profits, the Company shall continue to pay stable dividends while giving due attention to retained earnings and fully considering business performance and payout ratio in order to maintain and strengthen the corporate structure.

(Basic Policies relating to Cross-shareholdings and the Exercising of Voting Rights pertaining to Cross-shareholdings)

- Article 11 1 The Company shall hold cross-shareholdings only in cases where it deems that doing so will help increase the corporate value of the Company over the medium to long term, only after, however, thoroughly considering the economic rationale and the necessity for business operations.
- 2 Each year, the Board of Directors shall examine the significance of having individual cross-shareholdings based on the preceding paragraph, and the Company shall sell shares that are of little significance in terms of the effect they have on the market.
- 3 The Company shall appropriately exercise its voting rights for cross-shareholdings after carefully examining whether the content of each proposal is likely to damage the Company's corporate value and whether it can be expected to prove useful for the sound management of the issuing company and increase its corporate value.

(Countermeasures in relation to a Large-scale Acquisition of Shares in the Company)

- Article 12 1 To maintain and increase the Company's corporate value and eventually the common interests of shareholders, the Company shall prepare countermeasures in relation to a large-scale acquisition of shares in the Company, based on resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 2 When countermeasures relating to a large-scale acquisition of shares in the Company are renewed or applied, the Company shall examine the necessity and rationale for the countermeasures, ensure that proper procedures are implemented, and provide a full explanation to shareholders.

Chapter 3 Relationships with Stakeholders

(Building Favorable and Harmonious Relationships with Stakeholders)

- Article 13
- 1 The Group shall strive to deepen mutual understanding and increase corporate value over the medium to long term by communicating in good faith with stakeholders including shareholders, customers, business partners, local communities and employees.,
